Brand new lick from the Stones

A SPECIAL set of stamps is being issued to celebrate The Rolling Stones, Royal Mail has announced. The 12 stamps will be a tribute to the band, which celebrates its 60th anniversary this year.

Eight will feature images from some of their most famous performances, including dates such as 1969's London Hyde Park show held on July 5, just two days after the death of founding member Brian Jones.

A further four stamps will be in a miniature sheet format and will feature two shots of the band together and two of their vintage worldwide tour posters.

Sir Mick Jagger, Ronnie Wood and Keith Richards worked closely with Royal Mail on the stamps, which also feature drummer Charlie Watts, who died last year.

Heathrow hit by Omicron

HEATHROW Airport has called for COVID testing to end for vaccinated people while revealing that "at least" 600,000 passengers cancelled flights in December.

The UK's largest airport said "swiftly imposed" action to tackle Omicron hit travellers with bills for costly PCR tests.

Heathrow said it carried fewer passengers in 2021 than in 2020, with lockdowns globally forcing it to cut jobs and report a £2bn annual loss.

Just 19.4m passengers used the airport in 2021, less than a quarter of the total pre-pandemic.

Man gets pig's heart in transplant first

A MAN has become the first person in the world to get a heart transplant from a genetically-modified pig.

David Bennett, 57, is doing well three days after the experimental seven-hour procedure in Baltimore, US, doctors say.

The transplant was considered the last hope of saving Mr Bennett's life, but it is not yet clear what his long-term chances of survival are.

"It was either die or do this transplant," Mr Bennett explained a day before the surgery.

"I know it's a shot in the dark, but it's my last choice," he said.

Doctors at University of Maryland Medical Centre were granted a special dispensation to carry out the procedure, on the basis that Mr Bennett would otherwise have died.

He had been deemed ineligible for a human transplant, a decision that is often taken by doctors when the patient is in very poor health.

The pig used had been genetically modified to knock out genes that would have led to the organ being rejected by Mr Bennett's body.

Surgeon Bartley Griffith said the surgery would bring the world "one step closer to solving the organ shortage crisis". Currently 17 people die every day in the US waiting for a transplant, with more than 100,000 on the waiting list.

Europe chief Sassoli killed by pneumonia

EUROPEAN Parliament President David Sassoli has died at the age of 65.

The Italian former journalist and centre-left politician was admitted to hospital in Italy last month due to a complication with his immune system.

He died in the early hours of Tuesday in a hospital in Aviano, his spokesman, Roberto Cuillo, announced.

In September, Mr Sassoli was taken to hospital in Strasbourg where he was treated for a severe case of pneumonia caused by legionella.

He later told his followers on social media he had suffered a relapse while recuperating in Italy.

He resumed his political duties in November. But he was again hospitalised on December 26.

"Pneumonia is an ugly beast the important thing is to avoid relapses and the convalescence must be adequate," he told Italian outlet Corriere in September.

A vote to elect his replacement had already been planned for later this month.

Shoppers splash Christmas cash

UK retailers posted strong sales last month as shoppers splashed out on bumper Christmas celebrations despite the surge in COVID cases.

The latest BRC-KPMG retail sales monitor revealed that total sales rose 2.1% in the month to January 1 compared with the same period last year.

It added that like-for-like sales were 0.6% higher than the same month last year.

Growth was driven by non-food spending, as shoppers spent more on Christmas gifts.

Over the three months to December, non-food retail grew 4.8%, while food sales reported a 0.4% rise.

However, the figures also showed a slowdown in activity towards the end of the month.

THE PARTY'S OVER, BORIS!

PM should quit over lockdown drinks do, say public majority

BORIS Johnson is facing calls to resign as Prime Minister as the evidence about lockdown parties mounts up.

A poll revealed the majority of the country want him to quit as it was yesterday reported he faces a police probe after a bombshell leaked email showed his top civil servant invited 100 staff to a boozy bash in Downing Street during the first lockdown.

The PM is under huge pressure to "come clean" after the emergence of the message from his principal private secretary Martin Reynolds urging aides to "make the most of the lovely weather" on May 20, 2020.

By GARY DORAN

The email apparently caused shock among some recipients, who exchanged comments including: "Why is Martin encouraging a mass gathering in the garden?"

At the time, only two people were allowed to socialise outside while two metres apart under England's COVID curbs.

There was an exemption for "essential work purposes", but the guidance stated people should "minimise all meetings and other gatherings in the workplace".

On a visit to his constituency yesterday, Mr Johnson ducked questions about whether he attended the gathering along with wife Carrie and 30-40 staff who feasted on drinks, crisps and sausage rolls – as has been claimed.

Instead he insisted it was a matter for Sue Gray, the senior official leading an investigation into allegations of lockdown parties across Whitehall.

Fury

And Downing Street insisted that Mr Reynolds "continues in his role" and has the full confidence of the PM.

Bereaved families vented fury and accused Mr Johnson of "smirking" rather than answering the allegations.

And an online survey of Sunday Sport readers revealed

FURY: Kier Starmer says Johnson must stop lying

69 per cent think Boris should quit. And Labour leader Kier Starmer said: "Boris Johnson, your deflections are absurd. Not only did you know about the parties in Downing Street, you attended them. "Stop lying to the British public."

UKRAINE 'READY FOR RUSSIANS'

UKRAINE'S military chief has said his forces would defend the country "until the last drop of blood" as he urged people to calm down about threats of a new Russian invasion.

Lieutenant General Valerii Zaluzhnyi, 48, underlined that Ukraine has been at war with Russia since 2014, telling Sky News: "It is absolutely no news to us".

Asked if he was disappointed NATO, the 30-nation alliance, including Britain and the United States, had ruled out sending troops to Ukraine to join the fight should the Kremlin launch a further attack, the commander-in-chief said he wasn't expecting a "gift from God" and his forces would cope.

But he called a UK training mission to the country since 2015 "above important", especially

Speaking after a daily security briefing with the Ukrainian president, the general was careful not to comment on areas he regarded as political, such as the outcome of talks this week between the US and its NATO allies and Russia on Ukrainian and European security.

I'D DRINK HER BATHWATER IF SHE MADE IT 'SPARKLING'

TARGET:

Great White Shirt, Indio, CA, 12 Nov 2021

I'd pay a king's ransom for a glass of the bath water, particularly if she made it 'sparkling', so to speak. :)

Ireland trolled by vile tinkle fetishist

James, San Diego, United States, 6 days ago

Hopefully she joins OnlyFans. I would sign up right away.

IRELAND Baldwin set pulses racing as she posted a series of seductive photos of herself taking a bubble bath at a hotel.

The 26-year-old model took to Instagram to share her relaxing experience at the Urban Cowboy Hotel, in Nashville, Tennessee, where she posed nude in a classy vintage bathtub.

"The most relaxing stay," she captioned the photos.

The daughter of Alec Baldwin appeared to be nude as she gazed into the lens while soaking in the spacious tub.

But when the photo was put on the website of the hate-filled Daily Mail, it attracted a LOT of adverse comment.

And one Mail reader shared a comment that was so DISGUSTING, we hesitate to repeat it... For Great White Shirt wrote: "I'd pay a king's ransom for a glass of that bathwater, particularly if she made it sparkling, so to speak."

Mr Shirt would be happy to pay to drink bath water that Ireland had URINATED in!

Last night pals of Ireland were rallying round after the vile piss drinking suggestion.

One said: "Ireland and her family have gone through tough times and the idea that she would hold apart her meaty labia, maybe flicking her clitoris – or fingering her tight bumhole – and urinate a stream of her fragrant bladderwater into the bath just so that some perv could drink the fluid is outrageous."

Judge caught kissing cop killer

A FEMALE judge was caught on video kissing a convicted cop killer after trying to get him a reduced sentence.

A leaked clip shows Judge Mariel Suárez at a prison in Trelew, Argentina, apparently kissing Cristian Bustos, who received a life sentence for murdering officer Leandro Roberts.

Suárez, who was one of three judges in the case, dissented over his sentence and sought a lesser penalty.

She insisted she has "no sentimental relationship" with Bustos but authorities have launched disciplinary proceedings.

Craig: Taking 007 role was 'very scary'

DANIEL Craig says he knew there would be "no going back" after accepting the role as James Bond.

The 007 actor (above) said he knew the character would "change his life" and the idea had been "very scary".

Speaking to the Hollywood Reporter's Awards Chatter podcast, he said he had joked with a friend about regretting turning down the part if he did not take it.

"I did it knowing it would change my life," he said.

"I knew that it would flip it and that there would be no going back to who I was or what I was, either personally or professionally.

"And that was very, very, very scary.

"It felt like I was risking something."

Craig, 53, made his final outing as 007 in No Time To Die, which has achieved enormous success at the box office.

SHOOTING STAR: Riley is stunning in nude steamy scenes

By GRACE HOOPER news@sundaysport.co.uk

IF you know where to look - try subscription streaming service Starz - Hightown is a treat.

It tells the story of a small town fisheries protection officer, Jackie Quiñones, played by Monica Raymund, who is fond of the minge and is also a recovering alcoholic and drug addict.

But the REAL star of the show is American-born Canadian actress Riley Keough, who plays exotic dancer Renee Segna.

And that means we see a LOT of her tits.

And as it was the 31-year-old's first titty role, she played a blinder.

Exposed

Riley said of her nude scene: "Yes, so that was my first time doing that. [It was] very different.

"You know, in the past, I've said no to a lot of projects that I just didn't feel were quite right.

"When I read this script, I just knew it was right. I knew it was right for the character, it made sense.

"It was very professional. So at no point did I feel, you know, too exposed."

Here are her best bits...

Cop attacker who sang Adele hit in dock is jailed

A WOMAN on crutches serenaded a judge by singing the Adele hit Changing Pavements from the dock.

But it didn't prevent her being jailed for 12 weeks for assaulting police officers.

Louisa Cramer, 41, kicked the shins of a constable and threw punches at another.

She had threatened a female bus driver in central London the previous day, Westminster Magistrates' Court heard.

Luke Staton, prosecuting, said: "She assaulted an officer by kicking out her leg which connected with his shin.

"She also spat towards him. A small amount went on his leg but most of it went on the floor.

"She also spat at a police tablet."

Cramer then assaulted a female officer and spat at her, the court heard.

Cramer, of no fixed address, admitted two charges of assault on an emergency worker and one of threatening behaviour.

Tickling a tarantula helps lags defuse tensions in prison

PRISONERS got up close and personal with a tarantula, skunk, ferrets and rabbits... in a bid to boost their self esteem.

The animals were cuddled and handled by lags taking part in pet therapy sessions at HMP Doncaster and HMP Dovegate.

They included Katarina, a Chilean Fire Tarantula, which can fire urticating hairs at 'intruders' and has a venomous bite.

Animal expert Dale Preece-Kelly, who runs Critterish Allsorts which supplied the animals, said the aim is to help 'build up' a prisoner's self-esteem and confidence by stroking and interacting with the animals.

He said his menagerie, which also visit hospitals, schools and care homes, helps to 'defuse tensions' and claimed pet therapy can work wonders.

SEX TAPE SCANDAL BABE HELPED TENNIS STAR WIN VISA BATTLE...

ADVANTAGE DJOKOVIC!

ANTIVAX tennis star Novak Djokovic used evidence he had been targeted by honeytrap blackmailers in his bid to secure a visa to play in Australia.

The Serbian 20-times grand slam winner insisted he was eligible to enter the country because of a COVID infection in December.

Aussie Immigration claimed he was wrong and should be deported before the start of the Australian Open.

Djokovic, 34, took them to court and a judge ruled he is eligible to stay in Australia and play in the tournament.

The news prompted rejoicing from anti-vax protestors gathered outside the hotel where he was staying.

But Midweek Sport can now reveal that part of Djokovic's evidence to the hearing in Melbourne was that he was once targeted by gangsters who were trying to embroil him in a sex tape scandal.

Bonking

They had offered sexy Instagram model Natalija Scekie £50,000 to seduce and film the married star bonking her in a hotel room.

She said: "A guy contacted me. I know him from London and I considered him a serious guy.

"I thought it was a hidden camera when he told me that I had to seduce Novak and film it, but not to worry about that because he was already taking care of that.

"He told me I could get about 60,000 euros for that and a trip wherever I wanted.

"I laughed, expecting him to say it was a joke, but the man was very serious.

"I felt very offended and humiliated."

During the hearing to enable Djokovic to stay in Australia, his lawyers are believed to have mentioned the bribery plot.

A source said: "He would never have cheated on his wife Jelena, but the event does show how careful Novak has to be at all times."

NOVAK MAY FACE JAIL OVER TRAVEL FORM 'LIES'

NOVAK Djokovic could face JAIL over claims he lied on his travel forms... as bombshell pictures appear to show he travelled before jetting off to Australia.

Aussie Border Force officials are investigating whether the tennis star falsely claimed he had NOT visited another country on his application to fly to Oz.

The anti-vaxxer put on his travel declaration that he had not been abroad in the 14 days before landing in Australia, but pictures show him in two different countries within that time period.

On its website, the Home Affairs Department warns that giving "false or misleading information" to the government is "a serious offence" carrying a possible jail term.

"If convicted, the maximum penalty is imprisonment for 12 months," it says.

Djokovic was filmed playing tennis in the streets of the Serbian capital Belgrade on December 25.

The 34-year-old was then reportedly filmed training in Spain on December 31 and posing for a group photograph the same day.

But on his Australian Travel

Declaration, released by the federal court, Djokovic ticked the box claiming he had NOT travelled before his arrival.

Australian Border Force officials are now investigating whether Djokovic lied on his visa forms.

According to his sworn affidavit, Djokovic departed Spain on January 4 and had a stopover in Dubai before landing in Melbourne late on the night of January 5.

The timings mean Djokovic would have had to be in Spain from 11.30pm on December 22 AEDT, or 1.30pm Spanish time, to comply with the rules not to travel within two weeks of arriving in Australia.

But social media posts appear to show him in Serbia after this date.

Immigration Minister Alex Hawke could use "personal discretion" to move ahead with another cancellation.

The Aussie government has confirmed Mr Hawke is still considering whether to cancel Djokovic's visa.

A spokesman said: "In line with due process, Minister Hawke will thoroughly consider the matter. It is inappropriate to comment further."

It's booze and big brekkies for Crouchy

FOOTY legend Peter Crouch says he's been tucking into fry-ups for brekkie and downing bottles of wine at night with wife Abbey since hanging up his boots.

The 40-year-old former Spurs and Liverpool ace – who netted 22 goals for England – says he hasn't put on a pound since retiring in 2019.

The 6ft 7ins star, now a pundit, also said he had taken up boxing and was probably the "tallest featherweight in history".

The dad-of-four said: "Unlike most retired footballers I don't have to worry about weight."

"I haven't put on a pound, even though full English breakfasts have crept in."

The ex-striker, who is married to 36-year-old model Abbey Clancy, said he and his wife loved a bottle of vino or three.

He said: "Me and Abs will try to get the kids in bed by eight."

"We are both partial to a glass of wine. The second bottle we'll crack open nineish. The third one at tenish!"

Omicron puts COVID top of Brit worry list

COVID once again shot to the top of the British public's list of concerns while environmental issues dropped down the agenda, polling shows.

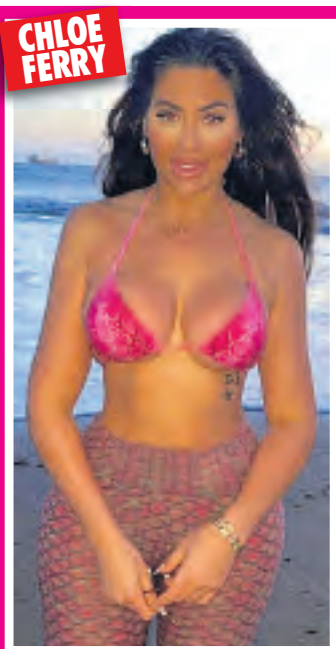

More than six in 10 said the pandemic was a major issue for Britain in Ipsos MORI's December issues index – double the proportion recorded in the two months earlier.

The poll was conducted in mid-December, after the emergence of the Omicron variant.

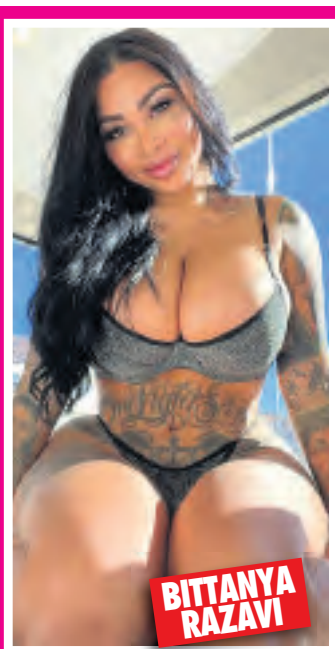

Concerns over the environment, pollution, and climate change dropped drastically down the public's priorities.

Only 13% mentioned the topic as a key issue, down from its highest ever score of 40% in November.

Levels of concern over COVID is similar for Labour and Conservative voters.

NASH*Chris: My octopus in bath shock

TV star Chris Packham has admitted putting an OCTOPUS in a hotel bathtub.

The 60-year-old Springwatch host said he was on a uni trip to Andalusia in Spain when he was a zoology student in the 1980s, when he came across an octopus in the sea.

The wildlife expert said he picked up the creature and took it to his hotel room and plonked it in a bath of sea water.

He said: "I found a small octopus among the surf and put it in a bucket of sea water."

"I took it up to the bathtub in my room to slowly watch it change colour – as octopuses do – from black to a translucent white."

He said, however, that after he nipped out, he returned to find the octopus missing – finding it behind his chest of drawers.

The TV star said: "As it turns out, they're escape artists."

"It clambered out of the bath and slipped under the bathroom door. I realised it wasn't happy, so I returned it to the sea."

Cat burglar nicked for petting kitty

A BURGLAR was arrested after breaking into someone's home in the early hours to pet a CAT.

Resident Brittney Cline, 56, said she was in a deep sleep around 3.30am when her cat jumped off the bed and woke her up.

"When I opened my eyes I could see the shadow of a man standing at the end of my bed," Cline said.

"He was standing perfectly still, I said 'hello' and when I said hello he dropped very slowly down to the ground."

Cline grabbed her phone and turned on the light to see a man crouched at the foot of her bed petting her cat before leaving.

Her neighbour Jasper Florenza, 39, from St Petersburg, Florida, was charged with burglary.

I HAD BUM SEX ALL THE TIME

ANAL ACTION:
Abbie Chatfield

Reality telly star's X-rated confession

AUSSIE reality telly star Abbie Chatfield has revealed she expanded her BUM HOLE with sex toys because she loved ANAL SEX so much!

The former Bachelor and Bachelor in Paradise star, 26, revealed her raunchy sex confession on her podcast It's a Lot last week.

She said: "I used to do anal all the time... sometimes honestly more frequently than vaginal penetration."

Abbie made the admission while speaking to media personality Sean Szeps about the use of "poppers".

Poppers is the colloquial term for the drug amyl nitrite, which gives users a small buzz and relaxes the bum muscles before sex.

Abbie said she'd been described by friends as a "trooper" for doing it "amyl-less", which she said required training with "bigger and bigger butt plugs" and lubricant.

By ANNE COATES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Before Sydney went into lockdown last year, Abbie said that she'd had a threesome.

She added: "I'm just losing my sex drive because we're in a weird spot. I feel like in the first couple of weeks we had something to look back on."

"I had a threesome the week before lockdown started... a girl and a guy and me. It was not planned."

"We were having drinks, and there was this guy I had been seeing and was still close friends with, and the new girl he was seeing, and she's bi and I'm bi and we started getting together."

"I could think back on that for about three weeks into lockdown, but now I can't remember it!"

"I can't remember being touched, or having sex, and now there's nothing to look forward to either!"

Naked man held at gunpoint and filmed

A PRISON officer held a naked man at gunpoint, filmed him for three hours and threatened to send the video to his family and church, police say.

The alleged incident involved a 34-year-old man meeting up to have sex with a 19-year-old female in Orlando, Florida.

A police report claims the teen was part of the ploy to lure the man into an extortion scheme.

It said the man was in the shower when Amony Robillard emerged from behind the curtain and pointed two semi-automatic pistols at him.

The man told cops that Robillard was upset because he had given him bad investment advice.

Robillard, 30, has entered a plea of not guilty and remains jailed.

MENTOR DENIES SUCKING OFF 'STONED' TEEN BOY

A SCHOOL mentor has denied sucking off a 14-year-old pupil after getting him stoned.

Kristen Williams, 41, an office assistant who works with sixth graders, has instead been charged with child abuse without great harm and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

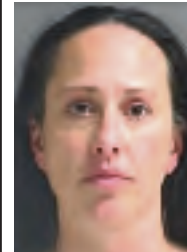

Cops responded after the parents of the teen rang to report him missing.

His mother had discovered several incoming calls from a certain number on the home phone's call log.

After she called the number, her son arrived home apparently under the influence of marijuana.

The boy told his parents and police that he met up with Williams (left) near his neighbourhood in Deltona, Florida, and smoked with her in her van.

When he saw his mother calling Williams' mobile phone, he had her drop him back off near his house.

He was first booked into the Palm Beach County Jail before being bailed.

ON the face of it, handsome police chief's son Dean Carter was a fine, upstanding citizen.

He was a doting dad to twin boys and a TV cameraman who was highly acclaimed for his documentary-making skills.

Yet in an 18-day spell of gruesome carnage, suave Carter turned into an evil serial killer, leaving five female victims in his bloody wake.

Even when he was handed a death sentence for his crimes in 1990, he showed no emotion – and no remorse for his actions...

RAPIST and strangler Dean Carter, dapper in his suit and trimmed moustache, protests his innocence to this day, even in the face of overwhelming and damning evidence.

To the man who secured his execution – Los Angeles Deputy District Attorney Marsh Goldstein – this proves Carter isn't even human.

Goldstein raged: 'Dean Carter never even said he was sorry. He never said anything. He's one of the most evil people I've ever seen – an awful, non-human being. If you believe society has the right to impose the death penalty, this is where it should be applied."

None of the families torn apart by Carter's killing spree would argue with that sentiment.

They still wait patiently for the moment they can watch as Carter breathes his last.

One of the women who ensured Carter is doomed to die at the hands of the State is brave Rose Steward – one of Carter's few surviving rape victims, having been attacked on March 29, 1984, just days after he slaughtered two other women.

It was Rose's testimony in court that revealed the true barbarity of Carter's deeds.

And a gut-wrenching article she later wrote for the LA Times gave a harrowing insight into her ordeal.

She wrote: "I was 22 when Dean Carter appeared in my bedroom doorway in the early hours of March 29, 1984 – a bandana covering his features, and a knife raised high as he leapt towards my bed."

"A week before, he had been a visitor in my home, passing the time during the week he stayed as a guest of a neighbour."

"Nothing I had ever seen or read could have prepared me for the viciousness I would experience in the next few hours."

Strangled

"I was reduced from a human being to an 'it' in the mind and actions of this man."

"He dragged me around my house by my neck for several hours and forced me to do unspeakable things."

"He twice strangled me into unconsciousness when I tried to escape. I fully expected not to survive the night, hoping only to die with some dignity – to die trying."

"Someone who has never had to listen to the animalistic noises of her own anticipated death cannot imagine the horror of it."

"When I was on the witness stand, when no-one else was looking, he would stare at me belligerently. He even smiled at times, trying to frighten me, I suppose."

"I just stared back, wondering if there was anyone living behind those eyes any more, if there possibly could be."

"It took me back to that night in my flat when he seemed to believe that domination of a woman half his size was proof of his manhood."

"Now, as then, I look at Carter and find him not like a man at all."

Rose knows how lucky she was not to have ended up like Carter's other victims – Jillette Mills, 35, Susan Knoll, 33, Tok Chum Kim, 37, Bonnie Guthrie, 24, and Janette Cullins, 25.

Carter's heart remains as barren and cold as the place he grew up – the frozen wastelands of Nome, Alaska.

Tall and charming and with Eskimo heritage in his veins, he went from being a delinquent child to a smooth-talking ladies' man.

He ended up in prison aged 15, after committing a string of burglaries.

And it was while behind bars that he trained as a television cameraman and video technician.

On his release in 1979, he found work as a filmmaker before he married a TV station receptionist and the pair had twin sons – boys he doted on, said prosecutors, but who he rarely saw as he moved around with work. In the end his marriage crumbled, and by 1983 he was divorced and his ex had custody of the two children. Carter was incandescent with rage.

Goldstein said: "She got custody of the kids and wouldn't let him see them. He told friends he was very angry and very bitter."

Knifepoint

By late 1983 Carter was in San Diego, California, working as a freelance cameraman and deckhand on a boat.

And, with a newfound hatred for women and a violent, miserable anger to quench, he went looking for prey.

On March 25, 1984, an unnamed woman was raped at knifepoint in her San Diego home.

A few days after that, Rose Steward was next – targeted in a terrifying attack that lasted for five-and-a-half hours.

On April 1, Carter showed up at a singles' bar called The Rocking

Horse, where he seduced Korean hairdresser Tok Chum Kim, offering her help when her car broke down.

Of course, he had no intention of being a good Samaritan.

On April 12, after Kim had repeatedly failed to show up for work, cops broke down the door to her flat and found her naked, decomposing body on the floor.

She had been strangled with a curtain tie.

By this point Carter had fled, in Kim's car, to Los Angeles.

At some point he struck up a conversation with three pals – Jillette Mills, Susan Knoll and Bonnie Guthrie – at a bar in Santa Monica.

On April 10, Carter paid a visit to the flat which Susan and Jillette shared.

Goldstein suspects Susan may have invited him in for a drink, not realising the horrors he was there to inflict, adding: "There were glasses of wine. I assume

Carter made advances that were rejected.

"I believe he raped Knoll and killed her. Then, when Mills walked in, he raped and strangled her, too."

Their bodies were later found casually piled up in a cupboard. They had both been sexually assaulted and then strangled.

Discarded

It is thought that on the very same day, Carter also drove to the nearby apartment of clothes-maker Bonnie, on the pretence that she might be able to knit him a new jumper.

She was also found raped and strangled on the bedroom floor of her home, by the building manager.

Carter's final victim was Janette Cullins. He forced his way into her home before raping and strangling her, and leaving her in a cupboard like she was nothing more than a discarded pair of shoes.

In one final insult, Carter then stole from the woman he'd just murdered.

He swiped a bank card and used it to empty Janette's account, then he drove her distinctive Datsun 280-Z sports car to Las Vegas and then Arizona, seemingly hell-bent on having fun with her cash.

But when a trucker reported seeing an 'erratic driver who was possibly drunk' behind the wheel of a now-wanted stolen Datsun, the cops swooped.

Carter was arrested without incident and the car would prove vital in tying him to the murders. In the car were items belonging to all five of the women he had killed.

That, along with bodily fluids found on the dead bodies, was more than enough to leave a jury without a shadow of doubt.

Death

In January 1990, Carter was found guilty of the murders of Jillette Mills, Susan Knoll, and Bonnie Guthrie and handed a place on Death Row.

Goldstein told the jury: "He murdered five people by strangulation. For someone who did what he did for the reasons that he did it, there is no other sentence possible but death."

"This is not the conduct of a person who should be allowed to live."

Jillette's sister, Jennifer Bollman, said: "I want to watch him die, so he can see how my sister felt when he was choking her."

A year later, Carter was also found guilty of the first-degree murders of Janette Cullins and Tok Chum Kim.

For the next two decades, one man in particular - George Cullins, grief-stricken dad of Janette - made it his life's mission to see Carter die.

Sadly, George was killed in a car accident in 2011, aged 88.

As he himself had predicted, George never lived long enough for the slow-moving wheels of justice to catch up with his daughter's killer.

Now it is Carter who is able to do as he pleases while he awaits his fate, even penning an online diary from his cell at San Quentin Prison entitled Dead Man Talking, in which he moans about his lot in life.

Misery

In an entry from February this year, Carter describes how he felt like a "fish in a bowl" after a group of journalists were invited in to Death Row to write an article about the killers who wait there.

With any luck, and to put everyone out of their misery, it won't be long until Carter feels the cold, sharp prick of a lethal injection.

Fury over bum sex video at ancient Greek temple

AN X-rated BUM SEX video filmed at the famed Acropolis in Athens has caused a storm in Greece.

The Ministry of Culture has launched an investigation following the online release of a short film showing two men having sex at the ancient citadel overlooking the city.

The 36-minute film entitled "Xeparthenon" - a wordplay using Parthenon, meaning "deflowering" in Greek - was first shown at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki in mid-December but came to the attention of the authorities in early January.

By GRACE HOOPER

written statement by the makers, in which the ancient monument is characterized as being a "symbol of nationalism and carrier of heteronormal messages" - even though the Ancient Greeks INVENTED bum sex.

While passers-by during the shooting or viewers of the film might think the making of the video had permission from the authorities, the Ministry of Culture said what happened was without its consent.

"The archaeological site of the Acropolis is not suitable for any kind of activism or other activity which would cause offence and displays disrespect for the monument," was the ministry's statement.

#HOT'N'HORNY

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

The BBC should be Auntie Woke!

ENOUGH!
Nigel Rees
quit over
'interfering'
diversity
drive

ONE of the greatest comic minds behind almost everything decent that the BBC has ever put out is John Lloyd.

You may not know his name but, depending on how old you are, you'll know the stuff he's been a part of.

Not The Nine O'Clock News, Blackadder, QI, and The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy may all ring a bell.

Likewise, he was one of the architects behind Spitting Image, invented BBC Radio 4's The News Quiz and collaborated on the hugely successful book 1,411 Quite Interesting Facts to Knock You Sideways.

He also helped invent yet another show for Radio 4, Quote... Unquote.

Like QI, it's a high brow quiz that manages to keep thick people like me happy by being headily laced with humour.

But now, after 46 years on the airwaves, it has come to an end.

Diversity

His show's co-creator, Nigel Rees, has hung up his headphones after finally realising that the BBC is just too WOKE.

Mr Rees is far too polite to put it like that, exactly, but in an interview over the weekend he pretty much confirmed it.

The show was now getting suggestions on who to have on as guests, he explained – even though he had personally sourced all of his guests for decades.

There were hints about diversity, and equality, and all the other joy-sucking terms now associated with our national broadcaster.

The 77-year-old told the Sunday Times: "We had prescriptions to have diverse groups and disabled guests."

"I went along with it because I had to. It came from upstairs and it seemed to be a general priority."

He said he felt it was "patronising", not least to the people who might have felt they were only on the show as they were "ticking a box".

Confirming his departure, he concluded: "I am not willing to go on having my choices interfered with in order to tick boxes in the name of diversity and representation."

And with that, Mr Rees left the building.

And along with him, millions of devoted listeners who will surely be tempted to turn away from the Beeb.

Bugged

Why do they do this? Why does Auntie keep shooting herself in the foot?

No one in real life has ever shook their head while watching EastEnders and wondered why there weren't even more disabled black lesbians in it.

Just like no one apart from Nish Kumar has ever thought about having Nish Kumar presenting a "topical" comedy show about the news, either.

They keep churning out shit that most people hate – Mrs Brown's Boys, anyone? – while getting rid of the things we actually like.

This is why the BBC is bugged. It no longer has its finger on the pulse of Britain.

Brits always have a moan, but we also enjoy a laugh and taking the piss out of ourselves.

More of that, and less woke madness, and the Beeb might just save its future from itself.

Knife man, 74, chased targets on e-scooter

A 74-YEAR-OLD man chased two people with a knife while riding an electric scooter.

During a row, Daniel Zarelli took an 8-inch blade from a drawer in his home and "actively followed" a woman throughout the residence on his scooter.

Zarelli's alleged threats of wanting to kill the woman prompted her to run from the home.

Cops said he then targeted a man outside the home, chasing him around a car and down the street while still holding the knife.

Zarelli slashed the car's left rear tyre "with wilful and malicious intent," causing approximately £400 in damages, according to police.

Officers reported smelling alcohol on his breath and hearing him say he wanted to stab the man he was chasing "while he had the chance".

Zarelli (above) was booked into Brevard County Jail in Florida on multiple charges, including two instances of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

Army recruits ordered to get their kit off

NORWAY'S military men and women now have to return their used underwear, including bras and socks, after their service is completed.

The army made the decision because of dwindling supplies and supply chain issues caused by the pandemic.

"The decision to reuse this part of the kit will help us have more volume in circulation and increase the delivery capacity of the equipment," said a spokesman.

In years past, conscripts could voluntarily return their undies.

"The linen is washed, cleaned and checked. What we distribute is in good condition," the spokesman added.

Norway has compulsory conscription, but not everyone ends up being drafted.

PORN MISS TOSSED OFF TEEN PUPIL

Teacher asked lad: 'Like what you see? Do it to me!'

LOVE Island babe Georgia Harrison has a cracking pair of knockers and loves to show them off!

The 26-year-old was wearing a very low cut bikini when she posted this sexy snap on Insta.

A source said: "By 'eck. You don't get many of them to the pound."

Gorgeous Georgia is bust awesome

LESSONS IN LOVE: Corinna Crumpton

A SEX-crazed teacher sent a teen pupil a video clip of a woman taking a load of SPUNK ejaculated onto her face and asked the lad if he'd like to recreate the scene.

Corinna Crumpton sent a message with the clip reading: "Like what you see? Do it to me!" But now the 30-year-old is facing child sex charges after sending the teenager the clip and later wanking off his thick, iron-hard cock to messy completion.

Cops say that the lad, 16, did not ejaculate onto Crumpton's face, as she had suggested in the texted video clip.

Fully-shaven

But the lad did finger her fully-shaven slot while she masturbated his raging erection.

The allegations stem from incidents which are said to have taken place in August and December last year in Toccoa, Georgia.

Cops from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation say the relationship began when Crumpton flirted with the pupil in class at Hart County High School.

Witnesses claim that Crumpton often referred to the victim's genital bulge.

But she crossed the line to illegality when she sent the porn clip.

It's believed she also sent the lad a video of her inserting a 12-inch dildo into her vagina while fingering her tight bumhole.

That soon led to her masturbating the lad's hard penis.

The Georgia Bureau of Investigation said in a statement: "The GBI has arrested Corinna Crumpton in reference to an investigation that began in December of 2021 at the request of the Hartwell Police Department.

Obscene

"Agents have since charged Crumpton with sexual assault and electronically furnishing obscene materials to a minor, which are both felony charges.

"The crimes took place between August and December of 2021.

"Crumpton is a Hart County High School teacher.

"This investigation is active and ongoing."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Bexie,

I'm having an affair with our babysitter and my thick wife doesn't suspect a thing.

I'm 27, the missus is 29 and the babysitter is 19, with pert tits and a tight pussy.

She's quite experienced for a teen and I have been shagging her for six months. She lets me do anything I want with her, which is more than the ball and chain does.

The wife believes everything I tell her – that's how I can enjoy my cake and eat it!

We go out twice a week and while she's getting ready me and the babysitter have a quickie.

We make love all over the house, even in our bed while the wife is relaxing in the bath.

Do you think she knows and is just turning a blind eye?

BG, Kidderminster

Bexie says...

YOU'RE playing with fire my friend. Be warned!

Dear Bexie,

I'm a barmaid and I love sex. I'm 21 with long, dark hair and most blokes can't take their eyes off my 34Ds.

I am used to being chatted up but had never taken it any further until one of the regulars offered me £20 to suck his cock.

I needed the money, so I gave him a blowjob on my way home. I must have impressed him, as over the next few weeks several of his mates paid me to give them a gobble.

I was happy with the extra money and was delighted when the landlord offered me £500 to be shagged by him and a couple of customers.

On the night of the gang-bang the landlord led me to the pool table and soon I was being banged by three blokes.

But they told everybody in town and now I can't go anywhere without being called a slag.

What should I do?

LG, Leeds

Bexie says...

MOVE to a new area and find another job.

Girlfriend's filthy pal has made me her sex slave

Dear Bexie,

My bird's mate is a right dirty cow and she has wanted to shag me for ages.

I managed to resist her advances until just a couple of weeks ago.

My girlfriend was away at a conference for the weekend and her mate came round to my flat clutching a couple of bottles of wine and a pizza.

She said she was just checking up on me to make sure I wasn't seeing any other women behind my bird's back!

We soon polished off the wine and we were both a bit tipsy and I could see what was coming next.

She stood up and stripped off to her black G-string before getting out my throbbing cock and sucking me off until I spunked on her face.

She then pleased herself with a wine bottle until I was rock-hard again. I led her to my bedroom and gave her a good shagging.

But when I woke up the next day, I felt horribly guilty.

I told her that we couldn't have sex again, but she said she would tell my girlfriend if I didn't carry on seeing her.

She explained that she didn't like my girlfriend anyway and if their friendship ended she wouldn't be that bothered.

So I now have to bang her twice a week.

The last time we did it she tied me up and spanked me with a cane.

I'm virtually her sex slave now. What do you think I should do?

JD, Essex

Bexie says...

TELL your girlfriend the truth and beg for forgiveness.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week BEXIE WILLIAMS has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

I'm worn out playing kinky sex games he sees on TV

Dear Bexie,

MY boyfriend is wearing me down with his constant – and bizarre – sexual requests.

We've been going out together for two years and recently set up home in a roomy two-bed flat.

The problem is that what he watches on the telly he tends to put into practice in real life.

Take this for example. There was this game show which you got the chance to open a box containing details of a super prize.

We watched it together and I must admit I quite enjoyed it.

He's a bit of a pub quiz fan and when it finished he got me to ask him a few questions – as a test.

Hammering

Amazingly, he got them all right and demanded his big prize.

I was just going along with the fun, wondering what the punchline would be, when he pulled me into the bedroom, which I didn't resist.

He quickly stripped me and the next thing I knew, I was naked on the bed and he was standing above me demanding: "Open the box!"

I soon realised what he meant as he parted my legs and entered me.

Then he spent the next half-an-hour hammering into me from all angles.

I must have orgasmed five or more times and was covered in his man muck.

We had a really great session, but the next programme he took a fancy to watching on the telly was a play about two lesbians.

As soon as it finished he started on to me, asking if I could please find another woman to make love to – so he could watch!

I was a bit shocked and told him so and although he apologised and calmed me down, it didn't end there.

He found a satellite station showing old Benny Hill re-runs and watched three or four of them, back to back.

So he asked me to dress up as a nurse and run around the house chasing him.

This was great fun and we ended up having a frenzied fk for about an hour.

Then he started on at me again about lebo sex.

I'm trying to put him off the idea but I am also quite worried about what he'll come up with next if I don't agree to bringing another girl back to the house for some adult fun.

How can I stop him wanting to recreate everything he sees on the telly?

MH, Lancs

Bexie says...

TAKE the remote control off him.

Dear Bexie,

I MOVED to a new town last month and made friends with a guy in the local pub.

He's in his early 50s and works abroad a lot and he confided in me that he worries his wife shags around when he's away.

So he employed me as a part-time gardener while he was next away on a trip, asking me to keep an eye on her.

When I got there for my first day I wasn't expecting his wife to be so fit.

She's in her early forties and it wasn't long before she was whispering in my ear that she wanted a fk.

She told me she'd always wanted a toyboy – I'm 23 – and was soon sucking my throbbing cock.

After swallowing my mess, she revealed her 34D tits and firm arse.

I gave her a good licking out before I bent her over the sofa, taking her doggy-style until she had a screaming orgasm.

I've shagged her several times since, but she now wants to leave her husband, who's due back in a couple of weeks, and move in with me!

What should I do?

TV, Coventry

Bexie says...

STAY calm. She will probably change her mind when her husband returns.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

email: agony@sundaysport.co.uk Mail: Agony, Sunday Sport, 860 Chester Rd, Stretford, Manchester M32 0QJ

Dear Bexie,

I AM a 24-year-old geezer and have only had sex with three women.

I am currently single. This is my fault as I really want to hook up with birds, but I am too scared as I have a bendy penis!

The last time I pulled a nice blonde bird and got her back to my place, it all went badly wrong.

Everything was going great to begin with as I stripped her off and sucked her big nipples before switching down below to give her fanny a good licking.

She was gagging for it, but as soon as I pulled out my bent cock she had a laughing fit and told me there was no way she was taking that inside her.

Now I worry that all women will take one look at it and tell me to fk off. What should I do?

PK, Sussex

Bexie says...

I THINK you've nothing to worry about. Just get out there and get pulling!

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

WELSH wonder Jaye Rose admits she's absolutely FILTHY in bed. And she loves nothing more than lubing up her massive 32E boobs to give lucky fellas an amazing tit-wank.

Jaye, from Cardiff, said: "Not many blokes have been with a woman with huge boobies like mine. "So they've never really felt the sensation of having the entire length of their cock enveloped by a huge pair of fleshy boobs. "All it takes is a bit of lube or baby oil and they're in heaven - it's like they're in a different world! "Every time I've done it, the bloke involved has told me it was the best sensation ever. "And I love it, too - not only do I get off on them feeling good but it feels nice for me. "I usually make sure to catch their spunk in my mouth at the end of it. "Well, it's only polite after all!"

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDs FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

QUIET: Steven Gerrard

Old Trafford atmosphere a big letdown for Stevie G

STEVEN Gerrard stuck the boot into Man United fans, saying there was no great noise for Aston Villa's cup tie at Old Trafford.

Being a Liverpool legend, the Brummies' boss was expecting a fiery reception from the Red Devils.

But he almost seemed a little disappointed at the muted response he received.

Gerrard said: "It was relatively quiet. I have been to noisier stadiums.

"It was a good cup tie, a good atmosphere but in terms of what I got, water off a duck's back."

Villa had enough chances to at least take the game to extra-time in the 1-0 defeat to the home side.

Gerrard said: "I'm disappointed to go out in the cup, I wanted a real positive run in the competition.

"The performance for large periods was very good.

"We dominated for large periods and created enough to score goals here tonight.

"I'm frustrated. We're nearly there, but from nearly to being there is a gap. Me and the players need to fill that gap."

Villa face United again at the weekend when new signing Philippe Coutinho could make his debut.

Gerrard is also hopeful of bringing in Lucas Digne from Everton for £25m but talks for the left-back are taking a little longer than expected.

Footballer, 54, signs new deal

THE world's oldest pro footballer has signed a new contract – at the age of 54!

Kazuyoshi Miura's deal takes him past his 55th birthday for an amazing 37th season as a player.

He has signed for Japanese side Suzuka Point Getters.

Suzuka will be the 15th club Miura has turned out for.

He played in Brazil, Japan, Italy, Croatia and Australia.

He became the oldest man to play in the J-League in March last year at 54 years and 12 days when he came on as a sub against Urawa Reds.

IT CAN BE A GLITTERING SEASON

TUCHEL'S UP FOR THE CUPS

Chelsea boss wants to win quadruple

MANCHESTER City may be away and gone in the Premier League title race – but Chelsea still want to win a QUADRUPLE this season.

Stamford Bridge boss Thomas Tuchel is eyeing success in the Carabao Cup, FA Cup and Champions League. And don't forget the World Club champs they play in next month.

He's been playing stronger sides than most of his top Premier League rivals in the knockouts that are often overlooked by the likes of Jurgen Klopp.

There was no rest for the star men as Chelsea took a 2-0 first-leg lead in their Carabao Cup semi against Chelsea.

And the 5-1 FA Cup third round win against Chesterfield at the weekend saw the likes of Romelu

By PAUL THOMAS

Lukaku and Timo Werner on the pitch.

Tuchel says he wants to put as much silverware in the Stamford Bridge trophy cabinet as he can.

And he insists he would have put out strong teams if Chelsea had a realistic chance of catching City at the top.

There was no thought of taking it easy against non-league side Chesterfield.

Tuchel said: "If we had more points in the league and would be closer to Man City it would have been the same line-up.

"It is just this game to play, so it makes it the most important game.

"Of course we knew that it is a fifth-division team.

"We took some risks. Only four players in build-up and six to attack.

We did this and relied on the seriousness and the discipline of the players, which they showed and so the job is done.

"Once we come out and play we play for our spectators and for ourselves and we want to win the game."

One fringe player who did get a run out against Chesterfield was Saul Niguez.

Improvement

The midfielder has struggled to settle in London since arriving from Atletico Madrid on loan.

But he played well against Spurs in the Carabao Cup and put in another assured display against the Spireites.

Tuchel is happy with the Spaniard's improvement in recent weeks.

He said: "He is more confident and in better shape.

"A huge step forward was the performance against Spurs in the Carabao Cup.

"The adaptation has gone further and you can see he is more open, understands more, and has had much more impact than at the beginning of the season.

"I think he will be an important player for us and I hope so as well.

"You can see this in his game now. He is more open, he understands the language better now and these are all important things to consider when talking about Saul and how much he has improved recently.

"He is having much more impact on games than he was doing at the beginning of the season.

"This is very important because I'm convinced we will need every player to compete in every competition from now until the end of the season, especially at the moment where we are playing every three days. It has been a frustrating few months for Callum Hudson-Odoi who has not been a regular for Tuchel this season.

The 21-year-old was on the pitch against Chesterfield and knocked in a long-range goal as part of an all-round quality display.

He was pleased to get a chance to play. And Hudson-Odoi says the goal came about thanks to some good advice from the gaffer.

Option

The youngster said: "I was told to be wide and be direct and create as many chances as possible.

"I said to myself I have to try and create, be aggressive on one v ones and win your battle every time. As I ran inside I was looking for an option to pass, but I said to myself let's just go for goal.

"I could see the keeper was a bit more to one side, so I whipped it as much as possible. I was delighted it paid off."

With injuries to wide players like Ben Chilwell and Reece James, Hudson-Odoi could get more time on the pitch in the next few weeks.

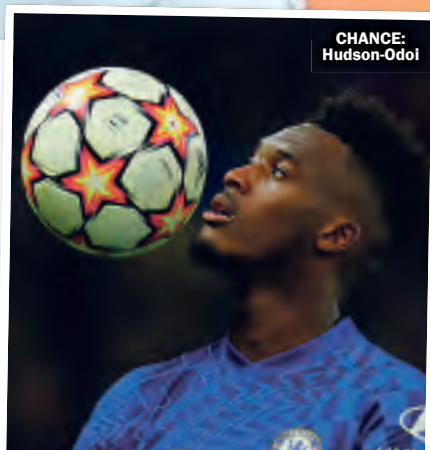

The only issue could be a niggle of his own as the winger was clutching his Achilles and had to be subbed for Ruben Loftus-Cheek.

Tuchel says he's not concerned that it's a serious blow.

He confirmed: "Hudson-Odoi felt his Achilles again so we decided not to take a risk there and brought him off."

Injuries like that do normally need time though and it would be a blow if he was out of action over the coming weeks.

There is better news about N'Golo Kante and Thiago Silva who have been out with COVID but could return for tonight's Carabao Cup second leg against Spurs.

STORM:
Winks

Winks has nod at team-mates after Cup crap

HARRY Winks says there was a row in the Spurs dressing room after they came close to FA Cup humiliation against Morecambe.

The Londoners needed late goals to beat the Lancashire lads who led for much of the match.

Strikes in the final 16 minutes by Harry Kane, Lucas Moura and Oliver Skipp made the scoreline a flattering 3-1.

The fact that the England captain had to come off the bench at the Tottenham Stadium speaks volumes for how poorly they played.

Winks scored the equaliser but wasn't happy with the performance.

He said: "There is disappointment, it wasn't good enough.

"It was sloppy. We weren't sharp or aggressive enough. We didn't play with enough pressure or intensity. We could have upped our game a lot.

"At half-time, there was a lot of harsh and honest words said. It wasn't good enough and we know that.

Settle

"We hold ourselves accountable.

"We did better in the second half than the first, but it's not good enough.

"These are the kinds of games where in the first 10 or 15 minutes, you need to settle everybody, settle the crowd and then enjoy the game.

"We made an enjoyable afternoon into a tough one. We shouldn't have done that.

"We got the result, we got the win, it's nothing to be too happy about because we made it difficult for ourselves and we shouldn't really celebrate.

ADVICE: Antonio Conte

"We should be looking back and seeing what we can do better."

Tanguy Ndombele felt the wrath of the home supporters when he was subbed.

The Frenchman was loudly booed as he walked slowly off the pitch with Spurs still trailing.

And it looks like that could have been his final action in a white shirt.

The club would be happy to sell him in the current window.

There won't be many takers at the £55m Tottenham paid Lyon in summer 2019.

He cops £200,000 a week and has more than three years left on his contract.

Boss Antonio Conte thinks Ndombele can turn it around.

He said: "You have to be good to try to change opinions if someone is disappointed with you. It's normal.

"If we perform well, the fans are happy. If you don't perform well, the fans are not happy. This is football."

CAPTAIN MARVEL

McTominay tipped for top by Ralf

SCOTT McTominay has got what it takes to be Manchester United skipper says boss Ralf Rangnick.

The midfielder is not always a favourite with the Old Trafford faithful who think he's a real downgrade on past midfield generals. But interim gaffer Ralf

By JOHN ANTHONY

Rangnick thinks he can follow in the footsteps of legends like Bryan Robson and Roy Keane in pulling on the armband.

The German paid tribute after McTominay scored the winner in the FA Cup against Aston Villa.

He said: "He is an academy boy, his energy is amazing. He now also starts scoring goals and also with some leadership skills.

"I wouldn't be surprised if in a couple of years he would be the captain of this team."

Rangnick admits there is a lot more work to do at United who were lucky to get the win against a Villa side who missed chances galore and had two goals ruled out.

He added: "We still have quite a few things we can get better at but clean sheet was important today and we worked together."

"We fought well as a team together when it was important. We showed a reaction from the Wolves game. In the end it was a good win."
